The Editor's Welcome

1997, and all that !

'Another year over, a new one just begun'

So sayeth John Lennon, but doesn't it keep happening quickly.

Hello again. Yes here we are with your Annual Newsletter, still in production, still intact and still with no new women involved. My thanks, however, to Sheila for her co-ordination of the production plan at KGV and to Mrs. Anslow for her continual work over the year.

It seems my threats in the past have fallen on deaf ears, so if this issue ends up being a male chauvinist tinted production - it obviously doesn't matter because the ladies (no, not you 'woman') amongst us don't take me seriously when I am being serious, so they shouldn't do it when I'm not (does that statement make sense ??).

Writing this gives me the opportunity to say my bit. Two fairly different people died this year, both of whom held my respect. Ken Rostron was my family doctor until his retirement. His gruff manner with some of his patients did not prevent him being endeared to them outside of his four walls. You always knew you'd get a straight answer and that it was given with a great deal of thought and experience. I'll miss reminding him of my grand mother and the hard times she tried, but failed, to give him.

Tom Dutton was different but of the same era. I saw him infrequently, but he always treated me as a friend regardless of our age difference. We had good chats and Tom helped me in recomencing the Old Georgians Cricket match a few seasons ago - readily willing to bat for the team but settling for umpiring instead. He was always enthusiastic and had a twinkle in his eye. Friendly advice was often offered, and oft taken. Good luck to you both.

We - that is your President, Chairman and I - do not collaborate on the contents of our letters at the beginning of the Newsletter. We just put our own thoughts in and scribe away. However, I am going to take the liberty of possibly overlapping with each of my colleagues on two issues. Both to do with support.

Mr. Bond has not been shaken this year, but he has definitely been stirring himself to assist in events for the Association and the College. Its just a pity not many other people have done the same. The regulars - and they all know who they are - keep up the good work both behind the scenes and in attending events during the year. But what about the rest ???

The promised numbers at the Chairman's Quiz Evening were 40. Alan arranged catering etc. for this number. On the night only half turned up !! Apart from the embarrassment and disappointment, there was the little matter finances being owed to the caterers, which ended up being retrieved out of Association funds. It may therefore become necessary to insist on moneys prior to committing to expense, then those out there who do 'keep up the good work' will not suffer on behalf of others.

Hilary has also campaigned over the last few years and fortunately has rallied her support in the right corners. So much so that - as you can see on the cover of this years issue - the College now has a splendid new building to support the needs of the students and staff manning the fort in the present day. There is an open evening for OGA members on Thursday 6th March, so please make the effort to attend. Well done to all involved at whatever level !

Now I've finished spouting..... Good luck everyone, see you at the dinner and have a good read.

Ed.

PS - oh, yes. By the way. I think he was hoping to keep this quiet, but.... the Committees chosen nominee for the position of the Associations Chairman for 1997-1998 is Christopher Threlfall. Other nominations are welcome at the A.G.M. prior to the Annual Dinner.

The President's Letter

The Chairman's Letter

My year began as it must do for all new Chairmen, full of enthusiasm and looking forward to the first event. This was to be the Annual Cricket Match, but first there was no pitch and then most of the Old Georgians' were tied up at work and so the match, sadly, didn't happen. Well, at least Old Georgians' were employed so that was comforting. Next was the event that the Chairman chooses to introduce and I chose a Treasure Hunt, to take place in Southport. Some were on holiday, some were ill and some thought Lord Street was a bit long. In the end there weren't enough interested to run it. At this stage I was wondering if it was me that was putting people off!

In October, we were invited to attend the planting of an Oak tree at College to commemorate the 70th Anniversary. This gathering gave us the opportunity to see the inside of the new building and to that it was not far from completion.

The musical Evening in November was most enjoyable, the students seeming to have so much more talent than I remember we had in our day. Maybe the presence of the girls had something to do with it. John Pilling operated the hospitality bar after the show and this was most popular.

In December I had a modest success with a Quiz Night at the Victoria Sports Club. Great fun was had in contesting my answers and their alternatives. The Chairmans weekend is our next event in early March and we are going to Hawkeshead. This is not because there aren't too many places that will have us back for a second time, but simply because it is my choice.

You will recall that a beautiful water colour of Derwent Water, painted by the late George Wakefield was presented to the College at the last Dinner. This will be the centre piece of a dedication ceremony commemorating George's' long and valued service to KGV and will be conducted by Geoffrey Dixon on March 14th in the new building. This has to be by invitation only.

So, from a worryingly slow start to my year, things have caught up and the only event that has slipped into the next Chairmans' year is the snooker evening at S&B C.C. which will be in May, possibly on the same day as the Cricket Match.

our previous Chairman, Martin Fearn, began an appeal to raise funds for the new College and it is with our thanks to the generous donors that we have raised an amazing sum. We have sold many prints of Mrs Dixon's painting of the old School and we have reaped the benefit of a windfall bonus from the building society. I am delighted to tell you that we gave the princely sum of £6,000 to the College as this years College Project. This will be used to help furnish and equip the Library and Learning Centre in the new building.

Thank you for helping in all events in my year as Chairman. I have been involved in what has ended up as a most eventful and happy year.

Alan Bond

Remembering George Wakefield

At last years Annual Dinner, in order to commemorate the work and service of the late George Wakefield, the Chairman, Martin Fearn, presented a water-colour of Derwent Water to the College. The picture was painted by George himself in 1982 and was kindly donated by George's wife. The Association made a donation to George's favourite charity, Save the Children. Subsequently, framed high quality, reproductions of the picture were made available to OGA members of which a considerable number have been sold. Enquiries about further purchases can be made to either the College or Paul Bagshaw.

O.G.A. College Project

With the official opening of the new building to be made shortly, a unanimous decision was taken by the OGA Committee to present a considerable sum to the College to go towards the acquisition of furniture, equipment and books for the new library. The final amount will be made known at the AGM prior to the dinner.

Obituaries

It is with regret that the Committee wishes to pass on the following information about the deaths of the following Old Georgians (taken in order of birth date).

H E Nettleton (b. 12.8.09 - d. 2.1.97)

Horace Nettleton had the distinction of receiving all his secondary education at The Woodlands, located in a house at the north end of Lord Street, where the Law Courts now stand. He left prior to the School's move to new premises in Scarisbrick New Road, and its becoming KGV in 1926. He was the proud preserver of a letter dated 2nd September 1925 congratulating him on his successful matriculation and signed by the first headmaster, George Millward. He captained the School Rugby XV, was a keen cross-country runner, and one of the very first members of Edwards House.

After a short spell in a draper's shop, he joined the Borough Treasurers' Office. One of his many jobs as a junior was to cycle around Southport with a wages bag on his handlebars, paying the Borough park and toilet attendants. By 1941 he had qualified as a Chartered Accountant, having worked in Manchester and with Davies & Crane in Southport.

Whilst working as a stretcher-bearer in the Second World War, he met Robert Martin of 'Bob Martin's' who was on the hospital committee. The meeting led to work at Bob Martin's where he progressed to Chief Accountant and, ultimately, Company Secretary. He remained there until his retirement at the age of seventy one.

Horace Nettleton is survived by Mary who is now ninety and whom he married in 1935. They bought a new house for £750 in Derwent Avenue where they raised a family and remained for forty-one years until, in 1976, they moved to a flat in Westcliffe Road. For the last two years at Resthaven has been their home.

Always a member of the Christadelphian Church in Southport, Horace was instrumental in establishing a number of rest homes for which he worked tirelessly. His daughter Doreen is married to the Secretary of the Christadelphian Rest Homes and maintains the family connection. His son Tony, who is manager of Barclay's Premier Banking Division in Liverpool, was a pupil at KGV in the 1960s. In more recent times, three of Horace's grandchildren have also passed through the College.

As a former Chairman (60-61) of KGV Old Boy's Association, Horace Nettleton was a valued and regular supporter of the Annual Dinner. The last time he felt able to attend, in 1989, saw him enjoy the company of old friends such as T.E. Booth, J.R.N. Petty and the late Austin Fairclough. His absence thereafter greatly diminished the occasions.

Tony Nettleton, Stan Rimmer

Kenneth Rostron FRCS(Edin), LRCP, MRCS (b. 1915 - d. 1996)

Ken was born in Toronto, Canada, with the family returning to England in 1926. He attended King George V School on the opening day of the new school in Scarisbrick New Road. A member of Evans house from 1926 to 1932, whilst being a fluent French speaker he preferred a Scientific Career. He designed one of the first 5-valve radio circuits to be published in Wireless Magazine.

He entered Liverpool Medical School in 1933, qualifying in 1939 and began working at Southport General Infirmary on the day war broke out. He served in the RAMC from 1942 to 1946. On demobilisation Ken embarked on a surgical career obtaining his FRCS in 1950. He continued his training at the Stanley and Waterloo Hospitals in Liverpool. In 1953, he became a General Practitioner in Southport. He supported and advised many potential medical students at KGV during the 50's and 60's, many have gone on to be prominent members of the Medical Profession. During his career Ken became, at various times, Chairman of the Local Medical Committee and Family Practitioner Committee. He was a staunch member of the BMA, being President from 1971-72 and their local representative from 1956-1981. He was surgeon to the Postoperative Unit in Southport and was medical officer to Mullards. In 1977 he was awarded the Queens Jubilee Medal for Services to Medicine. He never completely retired from medical practice, but latterly he embarked on computer courses and became computer literate.

He was very proud to be an Old Georgian, supporting the Association from the early 50's, including being Chairman from 1957-58. He never missed an Annual Dinner, even attending on his 80th birthday, sadly his last, when his wife Joan was also invited as a guest. He regularly attended Old Georgians Meetings and he took great interest in the students at the College, taking part in mock interview days. He is survived by his wife Joan, two sons, Peter and John, his twin daughters, Margaret and Elizabeth, and ten grandchildren of whom four are Old Georgians.

Kens family have made a donation to the College and a laboratory will be named in his memory.

John Rostron

Tommy Dutton (b. 22.11.19 - d. 27.9.96)

I had the privilege of knowing Tom for more than fifty years. We played Rugby and Cricket together for Southport RUFC and Ainsdale Cricket Club, and latterly were fellow members of Scarisbrick Bowling Club. He was a larger-than-life character and we felt a buzz of expectancy whenever he joined our company. What was he going to say or do ? We were rarely disappointed. Vivid memories include his ventriloquist act with Max Cunningham at Club dances, his arrival at a dance resplendent in dinner suit but wearing brown shoes, whilst insisting that, in an elimination dance, all men wearing black shoes should leave the floor.

Whatever game Tom was playing, the mere idea of losing was never entertained. But at the same time his sense of humour was always evident. Missing a catch was rare, but his excuses was immediate..... he had washed his hands earlier and couldn't do thing with them.

After living in Chester for some years, Tom retired to Southport and took up residence across the road from KGV. This enabled him to keep an eye on us and to satisfy himself that we were maintaining the standards he remembered from his school days. I hope he was not disappointed.

Tom Dutton was Chairman of the Old Georgians in the year 1979-80, and he continued to play a very full part in the life and activities of the Association. He gave generously of his time to help in fund-raising events, as well as participating in mock interviews to help KGV students market themselves. He was a regular attendee of committee meetings and was a valued participant in Chairmans' Weekends, during which he brought much hilarity to the proceedings, not least by displaying his talent for charming barmaids and waitresses.

The real centre of Tom's life was his family. His wife Barbara organised everything for him, especially his long winter breaks in sunnier climes, and this meant a great deal to him. He was very proud of his two sons, 'Our Philip' and 'Our Adam'. To say we will miss him is a gross understatement.

The Annual Dinner 1996

'Maundy Thursday of 1996 saw the largest gathering of recent years at the O.G.A. Annual Dinner'.

That was the opening plaudit of last years article on the 1995 dinner. It is also true of the 1996 dinner, held at the S&B last April. Well done Stan! An excellent effort all round.

(The problem is Stan, as with most of these things, 'cos you keep doing so well, no-one else feels worthy of taking over - so keep up the good work - Ed).

The attendees were slightly re-arranged to as to fit comfortably in the main room provided. The food was good, the wine fine and the speeches of the highest quality. Young Fearn seems to have found his own feet now adays, rather than using the large team of script writers that his father has nurtured in the past, or indeed the quality input of Ronnie himself.

Hilary Anslow once again presented a fact filled and amusing reportage of life at the College. How she manages to keep it varied and entertaining each year as she does... well only Hilary knows.

David Lonsdale, actor, thespian and now husband and father (yes, we're all getting on Monty) was the guest speaker. He had many a sad story to tell and fortunately didn't. Instead he amused us all with his wit and charm, recalling events at the School in his time (73-80) and in his subsequent life, rubbing shoulders with the rich and famous of stage and screen.

So on to March 27th 1997.....

The Old Boys Match: O.G.A. 2 - College 1 - Abandoned 1

Oh dear. How enthusiasm wanes.

Obviously not wanting to consolidate on a current leading position, the OGA representation decided reduce itself to a team total of just five players the day before the match was due to take place. Therefore the fixture was abandoned for 1996.

BUT 1997 WILL BE BETTER. BE THERE OR BE SQUARE LEG !!!!!

Snooker(ed) - the diary that is.

It didn't happen. The calendar is too short and the diary too full. But watch this space in May.
