The Editor's Welcome

1998 – the Bug is approaching !!

The Millenium that is. Another 365 days chopped off the count down.

Anyway, on to more interesting things. Hi, bonjour, hello etc to this years edition. It may appear a little thin on the ground compared to recent editions, but we have had some re-organisation with the publication, staff and time available – so it's the best we can do..... until next year.

Keep those offerings rolling in please. We have a couple of quotes from Paul Bagshaws current Channel 10 production, 'Talking Heads'. Featuring Geoffrey Dixon and Hubert Long. Plus our usual entries from the Chairman and President of the Association.

Please keep in touch as well. You need to keep informed of dates and events as these pop up at unlikely times, so its best to be on line with the current social calendar – for the latest, see towards the end of this edition.

Thanks for everyones support – as usual.

See you soon.

Ed.

News of Old Georgians'

Roy Aldred, Edwards 51-58

Roy's friend, Jim (Gears 51-58), has written to inform us of the death of Roy on March 19th 1996 after a long fight with Leukemia. Due to his illness, Roy had taken early retirement from his position as Manager of a waste treatment plant in the Midlands. He had been an avid cricketer in his day and, in later years, enjoyed lawn bowls. He will be missed by all his friends and family.

Carolyn Blanshard (nee Thompson), H4 84-86

Carolyn married Gavin in 1993 and moved to Gloucestershire. They have spent the interim years converting a barn into their home. She works as the accountant to her husband's business, which is Art and Antiques. Their web site is www.arthema.com and their e-mail address is cjb@arthema.com.

Edward Caplin, Evans 59-66

Edward lives in London with his wife, son and daughter. He is the Director of a company arranging medical examinations and also Chairman of a local conservation body.

Jonathan Doering, AH 91-93

Jonathan completed his MA in writing at Sheffield Hallam University last Summer. He is now teaching English in Japan.

Jonathan Elliott, Gears 73-79

Apologises for his lack of presence at recent functions, but setting up his own business consultancy specialising in Lotus Notes has taken up a lot more time than expected. Can be contacted on JElliott@veejer.demon.co.uk

Darrell Farrant, Edwards 48-55

Darrell retired last Summer from his position as Headmaster at Abbotsholme School in Derbyshire. He now lives just outside Nottingham and has been invited to work part-time in teacher training and with school welfare inspections.

Robert Galkoff, H3 89-91

Robert is now a buyer with Marks & Spencer in London.

Michael Harrop, Woodhams 76-83

Michael is currently on a NATO exchange with the RAF, liaising in Norway with the Norwegian Air Force.

Michael J. Holroyd, P6 84-85

Mike is now with the Arena School of Motoring in the Southport and Preston area.

Philip Holland, Leech's 53-60

Philip, also a teacher at KGV from 65-73, was the founder of Hollands House. His teaching career extended to Deputy Head at Townley High School in Burnley and Assistant Chief Inspector with Birmingham Education Authority. He is now UK Training Manager with Sun Life of Canada and lives in Alvechurch, Worcester.

John B.A. Hyde, Rogers 48-54

John lives in Surrey and has two regular bridge partners: Gordon Lees (Gears 48-52) and John Weber (Woodhams 48-52) where fines are imposed for failing to wear the OGA tie !

P. Jubb, Spencers 60-65

Is now Construction Manager for Brunner Mond in Northwich.

Colin G. Knowles, Evans 50-57

CGK retired in 1995 from the service of the University of Bophuthatswana in South Africa, where he was Director of the University Foundation and Head of Public Affairs. Having been founder Chairman of the St. Johns Ambulance in SA, Colin was, in 1995, awarded the Knight of the Order in recognition of his services over the previous 20 years.

Jeffrey M. Leigh, Spencers 58-63

After 33 years service, Jeffrey took early retirement from BT in 1996. He is now training to become a Music Facilitator in schools. He still plays the drums in various groups and bands around Lancashire and the Midlands.

Brian Rimmer, Evans' 49-54

Brian was at school with Dave Miley, and this is the first we have heard from him in over 30 years !
Brian has now retired from Cadbury Schweppes and lives in Leeds, teaching bridge. Of his three brothers, we have the following..... David (58-65) Deputy Headmaster in Walsall..... Michael (58-65) lecturer in Languages in Saudi Arabia..... Allan (62-67) runs his own Sub-Contract Employment business in Hinckley.

Katherine Rose, 91-92

After graduating at Brunel University with a BSc Hons in Business Management, Katherine married in the following October (1996) She is now living in Dusseldorf and is learning German at Heinrich-Heine University.

W.E. Shorrocks, Rogers 45-51

Bill retired last
May after a career as a Senior Partner and Cashier in a Solicitors in Sutton Coldfield.

Dr. Ian Skipsey, Hollands 73-79

Ian is now Consultant Anaesthetist in Inverness.

Gordon Sweeney, Masons/M 77-84

Gordon is now manager of Dimensions, a natural foodstore in Bangor, North Wales.

Peter D. Taylor, Evans 59-65

Peter was appointed Director of Education for Leicester Diocese in September 1996.

B.W. Trueman, Spencer's 41-46

Brian is a Professor and Examiner at the London College of Music and is Organist at St.Giles-in-the-Fields (WC2) and of the Catholic Apostolic Church of Christ the King (WC1).

Cyril Neville Watson

Sadly died in April 1996 from cancer. Leading up to his passing, Neville was the Chairman of Keppel T&T in Singapore.

Paul Wood, E 85-87

Paul is currently living in Lyon (France). He works for a mobile phone company and is now married.

Interneters

By request, we are now collating e-mail addresses of Old Georgians – here's hoping they are still up to date. Please contact the editor on jelliott@veejer.demon.co.uk for updates etc
